

 A JUF Joyfully Jewish Event

PJ Library Goes Green!

A Tot Concert featuring Rick Recht

Jewish rock artist and environmental activist

Perfect for kids ages 2-5 and their favorite adults!

Children with special needs welcome and encouraged to attend.

Sunday, February 5 ■ 9:30am-11:30am

Solomon Schechter Day School ■ 3210 Dundee Road, Northbrook, Illinois

Join us beginning at 9:30 am for these environmentally-friendly activities:

Composting with the Urban Worm Girl ■ Collages with repurposed materials
Planting microgreens ■ Building with cereal boxes
Cozy reading corner ■ Create your own windmill

Concert begins promptly at 10:30 am.

$18/family in advance; $25/family at the door (space permitting)

Register at www.juf.org/pjgreen or by calling 312-357-4831

PJ Library Goes Green is a Lila Tov Initiative, sponsored by the family and friends of Lila Weinzwieg, a lifelong Jewish educator beloved by generations of children. She believed passionately in the power of Jewish engagement to enliven and inspire. This event is presented in partnership with JUF Joyfully Jewish Family Programs, The PJ Library Chicago, Solomon Schechter Day School and Keshet.