

What Your Gift Makes Possible

Each contribution to JUF translates into tangible impact and each giving level is tied to concrete outcomes, from supporting local families and seniors, to addressing urgent needs in Israel.

Under $150

- $18 a meal to a local senior in need
- $18 sets the Shabbat table for a college student on campus
- $25 enables a young family to participate in a community-wide JUF Young Families event
- $36 coffee and conversations with six college students
- $36 lunch for an older adult community days participant
- $36 sends a community member to attend a holiday celebration at The ARK
- $40 monthly PJ Library books to a child for one year
- $50 a backpack for a refugee student
- $54 one month of diapers for a family with a new baby
- $65 one month of supplemental medication assistance to a Holocaust survivor in need
- $72 latkes and sufganiyot for Chanukah, matzah for Passover, or hamantaschen for Purim celebrations at a local Hillel
- $72 snacks for a Jewish Student Connection Club
- $75 provides a welcome gift to new parents in the Chicago Jewish community
- $75 monthly public transportation passes to help a person with a disability
- $80 one hour of workforce development for a JCFS Knapp school student
- $95 one week's transportation for a Chicago senior who cannot drive
- $100 cleaning supplies for one new refugee family
- $100 an emergency cell phone and annual plan for a survivor of domestic violence
- $100 gas/electric bill support for a struggling family
- $100 a Sunday respite afternoon for parents caring for a child with disabilities
- $100 one month of supplemental food assistance for a Holocaust survivor in need
- $120 allows a bereaved parent to attend a support group
- $125 a counseling session for a teen

$150–$999

- $150 a career counseling session to a job seeker
- $150 school day off program for a child with disabilities
- $150 leadership training for a teen in need in Israel
- $175 financial training toward self-sufficiency
- $180 supports one Silverstein Base Chicago learning session
- $180 groceries and household necessities for a survivor of domestic violence
- $200 consultation with Shalva's family law attorney
- $250 Buddy Baseball for one player
- $250 critical lifeguard training for day camp
- $250 hosts a meet-up event for teens to establish and find Jewish community
- $300 a month of job counseling for a person with disabilities
- $328 ten hours of in-home services (one week) for a Holocaust survivor
- $350 funds two weeks of counseling for an adult struggling with depression
- $365 kosher shabbat dinner for college students
- $365 routine dental cleanings for a young couple without dental insurance
- $365 devises a safety plan for a parent and children who are survivors of domestic violence
- $365 minimum donation to attend Women's Philanthropy Spring Event
- $450 one week of adult day programs for a local senior
- $500 groceries and essentials for a new refugee family
- $500 a mental wellness professional at a JCC program
- $500 one session of Jewish Learning Fellowship (JLF) or another cohort experience
- $600 beds and mattresses for a family of four in need
- $600 sponsors PJ Library family camp for a young family
- $650 respite sessions for rescue and field teams in Israel
- $900 multi-session group therapy for Israeli survivors of the October 7th attacks
- $950 a treatment and enrichment program for a displaced child from Kibbutz Nir Oz

$1,000-$4,999

- $1,000 weekend trip away for an adult with disabilities
- $1,000 rent assistance to a survivor of domestic violence
- $1,000 one month rent for a studio apartment for a single refugee arrival
- $1,000 a grant to send a young adult on an immersive travel experience to Israel
- $1,000 scholarship for an Israeli child or teen to attend Camp Chi
- $1,000 sends one Israeli family through a mentoring track
- $1,200 multigenerational activity Passover seder kits for a public bomb shelter in Israel
- $1,350 delivers emergency aid to an Israeli and their family affected by terror
- $1,800 a campus student intern for a year
- $1,800 a truck of basic goods for evacuees after a missile strike in Israel
- $1,800 a year of Sunday school for a child with disabilities
- $2,300 month of group music therapy for students at Keshet's schools
- $2,500 sends a college student on an alternative break experience
- $3,000 sends a young Jewish adult on a Birthright trip
- $3,350 funds one overnight leadership seminar for 27 participants from the Druze community in Israel
- $3,500 six months of counseling for a family
- $3,500 assists an IDF reservist-owned business through a comprehensive assistance package
- $3,600 supports the cost of a Jewish burial for someone in need
- $4,000 a one-on-one inclusion counselor at Apachi Day Camp for an entire summer
- $4,400 five months of Hebrew language classes for a young adult in Israel

$5,000+

- $5,000 six months of food assistance and household supplies from The ARK's pantry for a family of four
- $5,000 hosts a social event, including transportation, for 250 isolated Holocaust survivors
- $5,000 one semester of Jewish engagement programming at Hillel
- $5,000 two weeks of Shabbat dinners on a college campus
- $6,250 annual food support for an Israeli family in need
- $7,500 sponsors the annual UChicago Hillel Nice Jewish Ball
- $8,600 sponsors an Israeli teen to attend summer camp in the US
- $11,000 housing support for families who have lost their homes in Israel

Your impact by the numbers

$40

monthly PJ Library books to a child for one year

$150

a career counseling session to a job seeker

$54

one month of diapers for a family with a new baby

$250

critical lifeguard training for day camp

$75

monthly public transportation passes to help a person with a disability

$365

routine dental cleanings for a young couple without dental insurance

$100

gas/electric bill support for a struggling family

$500

groceries and essentials for a new refugee family

juf.org